The Washington State Gambling Commission and the licensee, Derreck Ramirez, agree to this Settlement Order to resolve the administrative charges pending against the licensee. Stephanie U. Happold, Assistant Attorney General, and Melinda Froud, Staff Attorney, represent the Gambling Commission. Mr. Ramirez is represents himself.

I.

The Washington State Gambling Commission issued Derreck M. Ramirez the following certification:

Number 69-33588, authorizing Class III Employee activity with the Skagit Valley Casino Resort.

The certification expires on January 29, 2013, and was issued subject to Derreck M. Ramirez' compliance with state gambling laws and rules.

II.

Rick Day, Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission, charges Derreck M. Ramirez with the following violations of the Upper Skagit Tribal/State Compact, Washington State Gambling Act, 9.46 RCW, and WAC Title 230:

1) On January 27, 2012, Commission staff received an application for Class III certification from Mr. Ramirez. On February 16, 2012, a Washington State Gambling Commission Special Agent (agent) was assigned to review Derreck M. Ramirez' file during a post-licensing investigation. Mr. Ramirez marked "yes" on a box on the application, indicating that he had criminal history. He disclosed "sending pictures to girlfriend-unknown charge" in Mount Vernon and the disposition of the case was "msdemnor [sic] assault/May/07."

2) When Commission staff initially checked his criminal history, nothing was found. Commission staff is trained to forward any disclosed criminal history that may be disqualifying or criminal history that raises questions so that a trained agent can further review and investigate. Even though Mr. Ramirez disclosed he had an assault conviction involving taking pictures of his girlfriend, since his criminal history check came back as "ok," Commission staff neglected to forward his application on to an agent for further review, and his certification was issued in error. The error was brought to the agent's attention. A second criminal history check was conducted, and Mr. Ramirez' criminal history was found.

3) Because of the co-regulatory partnership with Upper Skagit Tribal Gaming Agency (USTGA), on February 16, 2012, the agent contacted the Licensing Supervisor, Chris Sternick, to notify him about the investigation. The agent let Mr. Sternick know that court documents pertaining to Ramirez' assault case were requested and that a copy would be sent to him.

4) The following is a summary of the court documents received from Skagit County Juvenile Court for Mr. Ramirez.

On February 6, 2007, an Information was filed in the Skagit County Juvenile Court charging Mr. Ramirez with:

- Count I: Sexual Exploitation of a Minor, a Class B Felony. On or about November 2, 2006, Mr. Ramirez "did compel, aid, invite, employ, authorize, or cause a person under 18 years of age, who was born on 3/16/1994, to engage in sexually explicit conduct, knowing that such conduct would be photographed."
- Count II: Dealing in Depictions of Minor Engaged in Sexually Explicit Conduct, a Class C Felony. On or about November 2, 2006, Mr. Ramirez "did knowingly develop, duplicate, publish, print, disseminate, exchange, finance, attempt to finance, or sell visual or printed matter which depicted a minor engage in an act of sexually explicit conduct."

5) On February 6, 2007, a Motion and Declaration for Summons was filed in Skagit County Juvenile Court. This document states that on November 2, 2006, a mother called 911 to report a sex offense involving her 12 year-old daughter. The daughter told her mom that she had met Mr. Ramirez at the Boys and Girls Club. The mom retrieved her cell phone and saw the daughter had over 200 text messages saved to her phone. When officers searched the phone, they noted that there were approximately 115 messages from Mr. Ramirez, and the first one dated back to September 26, 2006.

6) On November 4, 2006, Mr. Ramirez' 17th birthday, he was arrested. When he was interviewed about the case, he admitted that he was employed by the Boys and Girls Club and was in a supervisory position over the girl.

7) On April 10, 2007, a Statement of Juvenile on Plea of Guilty was filed in Skagit County Juvenile Court. In it, Ramirez pled guilty to Assault in the Fourth Degree with Sexual Motivation.

8) On April 26, 2007, the Amended Information was filed in Skagit County Juvenile Court charging Mr. Ramirez with:

- Count I: Assault in the Fourth Degree with Sexual Motivation-Gross Misdemeanor. On or about November 2, 2006, Mr. Ramirez intentionally assaulted another person and he committed the crime with sexual motivation, for the purpose of his sexual gratification.

9) On May 1, 2007, an Order on Adjudication and Disposition was filed in Skagit County Juvenile Court. The Order Sentenced Mr. Ramirez to 40 hours of community service, two days in Skagit County Juvenile Detention, a fine, and ordered him to obtain a sexual deviancy evaluation and follow the recommendations.

10) On March 1, 2012, the agent called and spoke with Mr. Sternick. The agent said, based on the elements of the crime, Commission staff would recommend the revocation of Mr. Ramirez' certification. The agent sent a follow-up letter to Mr. Sternick. In response to the agent's letter, Randy Skelton, Director of USTGA, notified the agent that Mr. Ramirez' tribal gaming license was going to be suspended pending investigation in order for Commission staff to complete the revocation process.

Mr. Ramirez has failed to show that he qualifies for certification, in violation of RCW 9.46.153 (1). Therefore, under the Upper Skagit Tribal/State Compact, RCW 9.46.075(1), (3), (4), and (8) and WAC 230-03-085(1), (2) and (8), grounds exist to revoke Derreck M. Ramirez' certification.
